The amendment was lost.

MR. SPEAKER:—" Before I adjourn the House, I wish to inform the House that at the request of some Members, we are not going to have a sitting on Friday. Saturday and Sunday will as usual be holidays. Monday being Meeladi Nabi for Muslims is a holiday. So, continuously for four days from Friday to Monday there will be no sitting."

SRI T. VISWANATHAM:—" Sir, will there be two non-official adys next week."

MR. SPEAKER:—" I am not informed of that."

SRI P. RAMAMURTHI:—" Sir, on the understanding that the next non-official day which is due on Friday the 28th instant will be substituted by another non-official day on Saturday or some time next week, the above arrangement has been agreed to."

MR. SPEAKER:—" The House will now adjourn to meet again at 10-30 a.m. on Thursday, 27th November 1952."

The House then adjourned.
